MEET RED BEARD

My name is Kobus Pretorius and I am the face and creative behind Red Beard Productions.

To me, photography and videography is about more than merely documenting moments. It is about telling stories and evoking emotions. I am driven by a commitment to capture the essence and spirit of people, and believe that every image holds a narrative. My goal is to tell your story in the most candid and authentic way possible.

My nine years' experience allows myself and my team to capture your special day with calmness, professionalism and fun.

Let's tell your story, together!

Your vibe, your tribe, my lens. Let's create memories together.
